Arlington Deputy Police Chiefs Darrin Cassidy (Criminal Investigation) and Dave Giroux (Community Engagement) on holiday retail theft efforts, New Years Eve in Arlington, and the work of their divisions

Giroux: Closed Wilson in Clarendon on New Year's Eve to protect pedestrians. Will do it again 3-4 times this year. Cassidy: Have used a Proactive Detail for Retail Theft.

Questions from the Floor:

What's the trendline on vehicle crime? Do you put signs in stores describing crimes? What can we do about people who block bike lanes? How can the public help you? Can we submit pictures to the police of cars blocking lanes? Do you track Immigration status when you arrest people? Could you do informal SRO walk-throughs? Do you give training on Officer-Induced crime (ICE)? [There is a dedicated Training Officer & there were 73,00 training hours in 2025]

Arlington County Board Members Julius D. “JD” Spain, Sr. and Susan Cunningham will talk about their roles as Board liaisons for the examination of the County’s form of government effort and the priorities for 2026

Mr. Spain and Ms. Cunningham made some opening remarks and then took questions.

How many Board Members are best? How many hours do you work each week? Are you looking at changing the Government structure? Is an Advisory Panel going to be created? What is the correlation between the CIP and the 20/50 Initiative?

Old Business: None

New Business: None

The meeting adjourned at 9:13 PM.

Respectfully submitted by Allen Norton

(Assistant Secretary of the ACCF)
